

Rugby World Cup Opening 2011

St Catherine's wrote stories on Monday about the opening of the Rugby World Cup.

On Friday I saw the fireworks. The fireworks were bright colours. George

On Friday I saw the fireworks with my Mum, and Dad and my brother. My favourite bit was the ones that didn't stop. Lucy

On Friday I and my Mum and my Dad watched the Rugby World Cup. I watched the fireworks at Mt Victoria. Benjamin

On Friday night I went to Eden Park to watch the opening ceremony with New Zealand and Tonga. New Zealand won. The score was 10/ 41 to the All Blacks. I stayed up till 12.30 in the night. When I was coming back on the ferry, the city was lit up with colourful lights. The lights were yellow, blue, red and white. Hugo

On Friday night I went to the Yacht club to see the fireworks. They went boom, boom, boom. Some were big and some were small. They were colourful bright colours. Rebecca.

In the weekend I went to see the fireworks and it was cool. Sebastian
